

Holiday Period Opens With 19 Auto Injuries

22 Crashes Reported Here During Weekend Before Memorial Day

The Quad-Cities — already far ahead of last year's traffic death toll — have escaped four fatalities during the first portion of the Memorial Day holiday period. However, 19 persons have been injured in 22 crashes.

With most local residents scheduled to be away from their work tomorrow, traffic is expected to be heavy, with the accident tally continuing to increase.

A school girl was struck by an auto on Johnson road in front of Eubank grade school at 3:50 p.m. Friday but escaped with minor injuries. Carolyn Sanders, 11, of 3147 Willow avenue suffered cuts to the right knee and right ankle, police were informed.

The girl was running north across the street, and Charles G. Buttry, 35, of 2591 Waterman avenue was driving west along Johnson road. The collision involved the left front of the car.

Thrown Out In Crash
George Vaughn, 24, East St. Louis, was injured severely at 9:35 a.m. Saturday in a two-car crash on Route 67a at a curve south of Madison. Thrown out of his car, he was rushed by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital and admitted for treatment of injuries to the right shoulder and left knee.

The other driver, George Becker, 38, of 2853 Washington avenue and three passengers in his car escaped injury. State police reported, John Bell, 29, East St. Louis, was riding with Vaughn.

Four injuries resulted from a two-car crash at 5:20 p.m. Friday involving the left side of the auto of James Patterson, 38, of 1122 Iowa street, and the front of the car of Josephine Butler, 63, of 1122 Iowa street, Madison, northbound on McCambridge road. Both autos were towed from the scene.

Patterson, who was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment, suffered a long laceration behind the left ear and injuries to the right knee, head and both legs. He had been knocked unconscious in the collision. He was released Saturday.

Two passengers in his car, Randy Scrum, 15, son of Joe Scrum, 1708 Second street, and Billy Love, 16, son of George Love, 112 Garschke Homes were released from the hospital after first-aid and treatment. The other motorist was treated there for a mouth injury. Scrums was in an abrasion to the right elbow and Love had abrasions to the back and right forearm.

GC Woman Injured
Mrs. Agnes Briceley, 47, of 1921 Ponton road, suffered an abrasion to the left elbow and upper arm at 3:35 p.m. Saturday when the left side of her car in an abrasion to the right elbow and Love had abrasions to the back and right forearm.

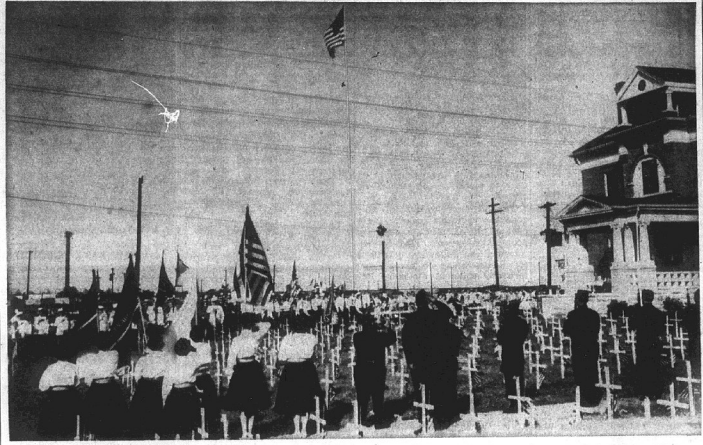

The other driver and Mrs. Briceley's husband, Deniz, who was operating the car, escaped injury. The Briceley auto, headed south on 157, was pushed into a service station lot by the impact.

18th-Century Crash
A collision at 18th street and Cleveland blvd. at 1:22 a.m. Saturday resulted in injury to three persons. There was damage to the left side of the auto of John R. Hargis, 37, East St. Louis, and the front of the car of Steve Plebanek, 35, of 2212 East 19th street. Both were towed away.

Home Is Looted Of Furniture; Other Thefts

A large quantity of furniture was stolen from the home at 2809 Emmeze street, police were notified at 4:55 p.m. Friday by Robert Joe Goodson, 222 Bryant avenue.

Goodson said he had walked at the Emmeze address until 4 p.m. May 22 for a furniture store to pick up the furniture, but left when he found the door open. He did not know if the furniture was stolen or if he had left it there.

Several hundred persons witnessed firelighting demonstrations and equipment displays during the day with Venice and Madison firemen among those participating. Then, fire trucks, fire engines and marching units paraded from seven streets in Madison through Madison and Venice streets to the Legion home on Broadway. Crowds lined most of the parade route.

Car Stripped Of Wheels
Sheriff's deputies found an abandoned 1951 car, stripped of wheels, battery, radio and other accessories, parked near Route 67a at Eagle Park this morning. A burglary at Brandings Service Station, Netherland avenue and railroad tracks, was reported this morning to Granite City police, who said the thief smashed a rear window and crawled through bars at the window to gain entrance.

Lost consisted of $4 in pennies from the cash register, two trading stamp books valued at $2.30 each and money from a cigarette machine that was broken open. Ellen Skinner, 1929 Ponton road, notified police that an albino rabbit and its cage were stolen from her home between 6:30 and 8:30 a.m. Saturday.

First of a Series

Streamlined Council Recommended By SIU

(This is the first in a series of articles based on a reorganization and operation study of government in Granite City, conducted by Southern Illinois University at the request of the city council.)

Streamlining the Granite City council with fewer aldermen, less meetings, electric voting machines and more emphasis on advance preparations and functional operation of a new system of committees is recommended in the Southern Illinois University study. The report, distributed to the aldermen last week, is to be the basis of a special session at 8 o'clock this evening with Dr. Seymour Z. Mann, director of SIU's Metropolitan Affairs Program.

In recommending a reduction in the number of aldermen from 16, two from each ward to eight, one from each ward — the report states, this has not been used in any Illinois city but it would make the city council a much more efficient body. To make such a change, a

Further Fire Rate Reduction Sought

Fire Prevention Code Among Steps Still To Be Adopted In GC

Pleased that Granite City will advance from Class Seven to Class Six in fire insurance rates June 15, city officials already are working on a concentrated effort to obtain an even further rate reduction.

Mayor Leonard R. Davis told the Press-Record staff he has been notified that the Illinois Inspection Bureau will send several representatives here from Chicago soon to confer on improvements that can be carried out to qualify for Class Five.

"I've been wondering why it took so long, but I was happy to learn of the new rate. They informed me that they will come and talk about further improvements," the mayor commented.

It was learned that the new rate, announced last week, was authorized after several National Board of Fire Underwriters recommendations were carried out and the city gave indications that others are planned.

Training Program
As one example, when weather permits, training is conducted from time to time on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday morning to include all shifts. Among the topics are ladder and hose work, knot tying, inhalator operation, smoke masks, handling and care of hose and use of fire hydrants. Special training will (Continued on Page 11, Col. 8)

Sen. Monroe To Speak Memorial Day Ceremony On City Hall Lawn Tomorrow

(Picture on Page 8)

Memorial Day will be observed at 9 a.m. tomorrow on the city hall lawn in Granite City with the 27th annual ceremony conducted by Sarah Jane McVey, Post 30, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War.

Highlights will be the principal address by State Sen. James O. Monroe sr., Collinsville publisher and member of the Civil War Centennial Commission of Illinois, and display of a restored, 100-year-old Civil War cannon, which was unveiled on May 20 during the Armed Forces Day observance at the Granite City Engineer Depot.

The 9 a.m. ceremony will open with prayers by Rev. Robert Bauman, pastor of St. Peter Evangelical and Reformed Church, and Mrs. Gelda Delahoye, Tent 90 chaplain. The address of welcome will be by Mayor Leonard R. Davis.

Local veterans organizations and auxiliaries will post colors and place wreaths on the Memorial stones. Mrs. Pearl Ward of Tent 90 will lead in presenting the Pledge of Allegiance. The flag will be attended by Bernie Yevins and Steve Conway, members of Boy Scout Troop 12.

Roderick Key, vocalist, will present several selections, accompanied by Phil Spence at the organ. Taps and the echo will be played by members of the Granite City high school band.

During the program, Mrs. Sylvia Turner, patriotic instructor Charles E. Hanks, together with Lawrence Taylor and John E. Molla, levee district trustees, will make visual inspections only, since the levee district has on file complete survey information as to the elevations of property in the area and the locations of flooding trouble spots, which lie within levee district boundaries.

A report meeting, at which suggestions for alleviating flooding trouble spots will be put forth by levee district engineers, is scheduled at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 8 at the Namekoni town hall on Route 162.

Some residents of the Ponton Beach area, Kraemer said, "have a problem which they're going to have to live with as long as they own their property."

It's low-lying, and storm water which collects during locally heavy rainfall won't drain off, especially as long as Kraemer's shoe and store are already above normal stages."

Kraemer said he would suggest that the Interstate Commerce Commission be petitioned for right-of-way to allow for the construction of additional levees under railroad tracks of the Alton & Southern Railroad along the levee district boundaries.

Blown Fuse Halts Power In Madison Yesterday
A high-voltage fuse blew, halting all electric power in Madison North and the southern tip of Granite City between 1:07 and 1:20 p.m. Sunday. The 15-minute stoppage was preceded by a partial failure lasting 22 minutes in the southern area.

The incident was described as normal but rare. It occurred at the substation near the Broadway viaduct.

Master Drainage Program May Go To Voters In Fall

7th Ward Vote Recount May Be Approved Tonight

The Seventh Ward election contest may be taken up during tonight's special session of the Granite City council, which was called last week by Mayor Davis for the purpose of hearing Dr. Seymour Z. Mann of Southern Illinois University outline the reorganization and operation of a new system of committees to turn over the completed engineering report outlining solutions to drainage problems.

The report, weighing three pounds, is the result of a year's engineering study. It calls for projects totaling $12,208,260, of which it is hoped the levee district will shoulder $9,225,620, leaving $3,282,640 for the city to finance on its own.

G. W. Hoelscher, chairman of the citizen group, who presided at the meeting, said a conference is being arranged with the levee district engineers to hold talks the next two weeks.

Levee Board At Dead End
He pointed to a major problem of securing enabling legislation for levee district operation, since the levee district already is in its limit of bonded indebtedness. Hoelscher said an effort will be made for the district to be bonded in order that it might share the burden of the local projects.

The report, prepared by the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab under a $100,000 contract, is the only city, was outlined for the citizen committee and 12 council members. 'Read That Contract'

C. of C. Advises Homeowners On Home Improvement Work

Homeowners planning repairs, remodeling, re-roofing, re-siding by or other home improvements are being advised by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce to do business with local established firms rather than itinerants.

"This is the most prudent of homeowners are assessing the ravages of time and weather on their homes and are planning improvements to keep them in good repair," Harlan Dobry, C. of C. manager said today.

The vast majority of contractors engaged in home improvement deal fairly with their customers, but there is a small minority that uses sharp practices to victimize the public," he said.

To aid homeowners in this area to avoid this minority as a part of the C. of C. community protection service, Dobry released the following questions for homeowners to answer before any contract for home improvement work:

"Is the company with which you are considering doing business an established firm or is it composed of itinerants who just happen to be in the area?"

"Do you know, or have you investigated, to determine before signing a contract, that the company under consideration enjoys a good reputation for performance satisfactorily?"

"Have you checked with a few third parties, the general public, who have dealt with the firm a year or two ago—to determine their satisfaction? Any reputable contractor will give you the names of satisfied customers in your area."

"Was any high pressure used to induce you to sign a contract immediately, without giving you an opportunity to consider it?"

"Model" Job Fitch
"An odd company or salesman tell you that your home would be used as a model job, or show-house and that you would receive bonus payments or commissions on every sale resulting therefrom."

"Was any bait practice used to induce you to respond to an offer, that is, did the firm quote a low price in an advertisement morning when apparently struck by an automobile on a lot in the 2000 block of Illinois avenue, in formed the Press-Record that he was not the owner of the junk cart pictured in last Monday's edition."

Coffmann, who was suffering from cancer and had undergone several operations, was unable to work, the family said. He was a retired laborer at Union Station Refining Co., where he was employed 34 years.

Released on $7500 bond late Thursday afternoon, he was charged with the murder of a woman, Hughes, 53, of 2516 Circle drive, who Granite City police charged with reckless homicide and leaving the scene of an accident.

Hughes is to appear for a preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Gasparovic 10 days after an inquest is held. Deputy Coroner Henry Pieper said a date has not been set for the inquest, but he is planning to conduct it this week.

Charles Morgan, 76, Passes Away Suddenly

Charles W. Morgan, 76, collapsed in a bathroom at his apartment, 1344 Cleveland blvd., and was dead there at 9:15 a.m. Saturday. Death was attributed to heart disease. Under medical care, he was found by a neighbor, he was planning to conduct it this week.

Mr. Morgan, who had been retired for many years, formerly was a furnace fireman at Granite City Steel Co. He was born in Ramsey, Ill., and resided in Granite City 53 years.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. John (Mae) Noelter, Beckemer, Ill., and Mrs. Alvin (Louise) Frey, Troy, Ill.; one grandchild and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services took place this afternoon in Ramsey, with burial there. Arrangements are given in the obituary column.

"Does the contract contain the provision for payment of damages by you if you cancel the contract?"

$150,000 Damage Suit Filed Against Railroad

Raymond Halbe, a former employee of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis railroad, has filed a $150,000 damage suit in Madison county circuit court against the railroad firm.

The complaint states that the claim is under the Federal Employers Liability Act. While employed as an inspector, Halbe claims he was working in the rail yards near Madison on Oct. 14, 1960, when an accident caused him serious and permanent injury.

He alleges that through the negligence of the railroad, a mechanism failed to operate while he was performing his duties, causing the accident.

Traffic Charge

William R. Brewer, 70, of 2227 Benton street, was issued an arrest ticket Thursday afternoon at 27th street and Madison avenue on a charge of being in the wrong lane. He posted his driver's license as bond.

Turner's southbound car allegedly struck the rear of the parked car of Jerry Flannery, 1513 Second street, pushing it over the curb. The Turner vehicle then continued on with the left rear fender of the auto of James P. Holland, 1515 Second, which had been parked in front of Flannery's car.

The complaint alleges the street on which she slipped and fell near her home was in a dangerous and unsafe condition. She claims that while she was walking along the street gravel slid under her feet and she sustained injuries in the fall.

SIU Hearing In Springfield Ends After First Day

Southern Illinois University representatives defended conduct of the school and its acquisition of a site in Madison county during a subcommittee hearing in Springfield. Opposing witnesses also were heard, and a report is to be filed with the Legislative Education Commission on Higher Education.

With the hearing ending the same day, instead of continuing Saturday as originally scheduled, observers credited SIU with refuting most of the allegations. Principal critics were Mrs. H. Lewis of, Route One, Edwardsville, and George Thiem, Chicago Daily News reporter.

Calling it a "land grab," Mrs. Lewis said land buying had shattered the "peace" of the area. She questioned the need for the 2600 acres sought for the new four-year state university. Thiem admitted errors in a series of articles written on SIU but defended the general approach and conclusions. He continued that funds were used "unwisely but not illegally." Garand Mira of East St. Louis, accused SIU of unfair treatment of prospective students.

John Bondman, SIU attorney, said the school has maintained academic standards that compare favorably with other schools while simultaneously carrying on rapid growth. Discussing a controversial student work program, he said the 3000 student employees include 138 scholars.

Views of President President D. W. Morris defended the school's Vocational and Technical Institute and said the university philosophy is to serve the region in which it exists. The school's 54 autos were used by teachers going to other cities to conduct adult courses, and for other purposes, he said. He denied a "no student flunks" charge and explained the unclassified grading procedure.

Noting that SIU has attracted $1,370,000 from outside sources for research, addition to $1,220,000 in state funds, Dr. Morris said, "Those interested in outside research don't spend their money at a university where they don't have faith in the faculty. There is no better criterion of what an agency produces: I can tell you our students are sought by employers."

John Page Wham, SIU board chairman, said the board takes full responsibility for the policies and has not delegated excessive authority to the president. Dr. Robert Lynn, Southern Illinois Council for Higher Education chairman, cited the need for SIU university in this area.

SIU's "Manscape" Air Domes Being Erected For Exhibits

A five-story air dome, setting for a three-day (June 2-4) seminar and exhibit on campus planning for Southern Illinois University's proposed Edwardsville Campus is being erected in East St. Louis this week.

The structure, made of three layers of plastic, is being erected by air inflation: two blowers will expand it to its full 100-foot diameter size and will keep it that way until after the program. A smaller dome, 30 feet wide by 50 feet high, will be erected nearby as covering for a related exhibit.

The program, titled EPSC ("Environment Planning, Edwardsville Campus") involves application of visual design values to the physical plan of the Edwardsville Campus. At a seminar in the dome the afternoon and night of Friday, June 2, thirteen noted personalities in various fields ranging from architecture to sociology will discuss why and whereof of such a plan. Seven of them will be in person; six more will be presented on a special EPSC filmstrip view. On Saturday and Sunday, June 3 and 4, an exhibit combining multiple slide projections and sound will be staged in the dome for the public. It will be titled "Manscape."

SIDELIGHTS from SPRINGFIELD

By Rep. PAUL SIMON

(Special From Springfield)

Illinois appears certain to be added to other states which have laws regulating fair employment practice and providing penalties for violation of same. The Senate of the State General Assembly last week passed and sent to a favorable House a bill to create a Fair Employment Practices Commission to act against job discrimination. The bill carries a $100,000 appropriation for its commission administration.

The vote was 31 to 23, five Republicans joining 26 Democrats to give it just one more than the bare majority of 50. One state senator wept with joy and a Negro Senate chamber employee sobbed happily as the upper branch of the Legislature acted favorably on an FEPC bill for the first time in 16 years. The proposal is a compromise with a bill which sailed through the House some weeks ago.

Voting with the supporters of the measure was Sen. Ora Smith (D-Bigsville) who is said to have yielded to the plea of Gov. Otto Kerner. Senator Smith disclosed he would vote for it short before the roll call. Another Negro Smith (Fred—Chicago) said he was one of the happiest and proudest human beings who ever walked in the halls of the Senate. A two-hour debate preceded the vote.

Scope of FEPC Bill

The five members of the commission to be named by Gov. Kerner will enforce a ban on discrimination in employment based upon religion, race and national background. Under the compromise amendments it will apply to employers of more than 100 persons the first two years of its operation, to those employing 75 workers the next two years, and to employers of 50 thereafter.

The five Republican Senators who joined the Democrats voting for the bill were Sen. Russell Arrington, Evanston; Robert McCarty, Lake Bluff; Arthur Sprague, LaGrange; and John Meyer, Danville. Sen. Paul Broyles (R-Mt. Vernon) who voted against the bill, criticized it saying: "It exempts church groups from its provisions, although many of them agitated for its passage."

Sen. John Graham (R-Barrington) said the proposal when it becomes a law "will set off a new wave of hate and will create a new minority-people who hire themselves out to discriminate against Negroes."

He said the bill would take away employer's rights "the rights to hire and discharge are important rights" but Senator Sprague said "it will give Illinois an opportunity to catch up with history."

The Senate passage of the FEPC bill highlighted last week's activity in the Assembly which begins the last month of its six long months biennial session on June 1. Other action by the lawmakers included Senate committee approval of a bill to investigate organized crime statewide and House reversal of its failure on May 17 to pass Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley's CTH Airport bill. It voted 53 to 75 (69 was needed to pass) to approve it last week.

State Crime Commission

The Senate Executive Committee, headed by Sen. Merritt J. Little (R-Aurora) put a "do pass" recommendation on the proposal to create a State Crime Commission. Republican Committee members voted the favorable recommendation after a former U. S. Justice Department agent testified a crime syndicate collects $2 billion in Northern Illinois every year. Senator McCarty said enactment of the measure would "alert the public to the grave threat of organized crime."

The airport bill passed after Speaker Paul Powell (D-Vienna) took the floor to speak for it. The House Democrat membership was present in full strength when member Rep. Dave Glenn (D-Deerfield) who recently suffered a heart attack walking into the House chamber, made the in time for the roll call. The bill would permit erection of a multi-story motel at the airport under a 40 year lease from the City of Chicago.

The House approved a bill to reduce Illinois "fast time" from the present six months (it starts on last Sunday in April and ends on the last Sunday in October) to five months was held in the Senate last week for the purpose of preparing amendments to make the reduction permissive rather than mandatory. Senator Sprague offered the amendment on Senate 2d reading. The measure is expected to reach Senate passage stage vote on June 1.

Tax Proposal Slimmed

A compromise between House Democratic and Republican leaders on a proposal to increase the state tax on corporation franchises may have started release of a jam which has been holding up Gov. Kerner's program to raise an estimated $387 million in additional revenue. The compromise slimmed Kerner's $400 million tax proposal to about $40 million and immediately after the compromise was announced the House Revenue Committee sent the bill out to the House floor with a 21-12 "do pass" recommendation.

Rep. George Dunne, (Chicago) Democratic majority floor leader in the House, said "we felt we were better off with taking half a loaf than no bread at all," and that the measure would have a better chance of winning acceptance in the Republican controlled Senate. Rep. William Pollock, Chicago House leader, said he accepted the compromise because "I understand the corporation can live with it."

Rep. George Dunne, Chicago, said House Republican who denied reports the House GOP is party to a "deal" with the state Democratic administration to pass the proposed one-half cent increase in state and city sales and use taxes. He said he is still opposed to the increase and insisted that his views are shared by Representative Pol lack. He said "neither of us have changed our positions in opposition to it."

Gov. Stratton Park

Two former Republican state officeholders would be honored by having a proposed new state park and a Fox River dam site named after them. They are former Gov. William G. Stratton, Morris, and former State Conservation Director Glen D. Palmer, Tiskville.

Separate bills by Senator Little would have a small tract of land on the Illinois River near Morris, named "The William G. Stratton State Park" and place it under the control of the State Conservation Department's State Park System, and have a new dam site on the Fox River at Yorkville called the "Glen D. Palmer Dam." Appropriate name plates would be placed at prominent points on the dam.

Senator Little said the site of the proposed park to honor the former governor "is not a very big area, just a place to launch boats."

House legislative subcommittee investigation alleged brutality at Sheridan State Reformatory and of the firing of Supt. Clarence Farber, Springfield, and several of Farber's aides, made its report last week and said it found no evidence of brutality and criticized the discharge of Farber by State Youth Commission Oliver J. Keller Jr., Springfield, as being "ill-advised."

Keller took issue with the report. He said he was not surprised that "I would do the same thing over again. It was a rotten administration, incompetent and inefficient. I would have been dead in my duty if I hadn't recommended the commission to take such action."

Personnel Report Expected

Another legislative group, a House Committee investigating alleged irregularities of the Illinois Personnel Code Department under former Gov. Stratton and Gov. Kerner, ended its inquiry last week and is expected to make its report within ten days.

The reports are expected, one by the Democrats which in a charge many Republicans under Stratton were blanketed into state merit jobs by easy examinations, and another by Republicans, who claim Democrats are seeking to fire many former Republicans who are certified holders of jobs. During the inquiry Republicans claimed Democrats were abolishing jobs held by former Republicans and hiring Democrats under other titles.

Meanwhile Rep. Richard A. Napollitano (D-Chicago) chairman of the House Elections and Reapportionment Committee, launched a series of hearings on the question of reapportioning Illinois' congressional district population census reduced Illinois' 25 districts to 24 by appointing a subcommittee of three Democrats and three Republicans to raise a Democratic proposal with instructions to report back in early June.

Sen. John Graham, chairman of the Senate Congressional Reapportionment Committee said he and State Rep. Rhodes (R-Bloomington) will center with members of the Illinois congressional delegation in Washington to show Republicans the various proposals which have been presented to both Houses. He said his Washington visit will be a "courtesy" to the congressmen and that he hoped to offer a GOP remap plan on June 5.

Three motorists were arrested Thursday afternoon by Granite City police on charges of speeding. They were Paul S. Pace, 224 Alexander street; Donald L. Madison, 20, of 4100 Highway 111, and Roger L. McNelly of Edwardsville. They posted their drivers' licenses as bonds.

DETERMINED TO WAR

Dear Corky:

I would like to compliment you on your recent editorial, headed "Civil Defense Readiness Lessens Chance of Its Use."

You are the first publisher whom I have read who has recognized, at least in print, the fact that the primary advantage in civil defense readiness is the deterrent effect.

I wish that the population as a whole were aware that if we "harden" this country through shelter construction and civil defense readiness, we would make it a much less lucrative target and thus give serious pause to those who might contemplate bombardment.

Dear Mr. Townsend:

I was quite interested in your editorial on the proposed sales tax increase.

At our last union meeting, which was held on May 9th, 1961, each member present was given a post card and instructed to write their Representative protesting the sales tax increase, but this is not enough, I sincerely believe that every citizen of the Quad-Cities should personally write to Mr. Lloyd Harris, Mr. Paul Simon, and Mr. Ralph Smith, House Office Building, Springfield, Ill., and make known their feelings, petitions that are signed in the various stores are a waste of time and effort, sometimes they are mislaid and I never reach the right party, the personal touch is what we need.

calling out of town?

Here's the fastest and easiest way

FIRST, give the operator the name of the city you are calling and the Area Code for that city.

NEXT, tell her the telephone number you're calling.

LAST, when the operator asks, give her the number you're calling from.

It's easy and fast. For example, just say, "Dallas, Area Code 214, RI 2-1432," and then when the operator asks your number, say, "KI 5-2368." You'll not only save time yourself, but help speed along your call as well.

In your editorial, you also say and I quote,

"It would be particularly harmful to business firms in such fringe areas as the Quad-Cities."

Maybe so, but what about the large family whose income is a moderate one, and who can only shop for their groceries once every two weeks and who possibly will spend about $40.00 or so, their sales tax would be about a $1.40 they sure could buy a lot of milk with that, I believe it would be more harmful to the buying public that it would be to a firm. If the sales tax is raised, then the everyday shopper is going to think twice before buying unnecessary items, then, and only then will it be harmful to a firm plus the fact that it would also cause some more unemployment, and we have enough of that already.

I firmly believe it to be a public duty for everyone to immediately write their Representative strongly protesting the proposed sales tax increase.

The Forum

Well, I see Glenview has another bunch of dogooders, going under the guise of "Glenview Civic Improvement Association."

What a blast that is. First of all, I believe that any bunch of dogooders should put the organizing of their group to the voters of the area they wish to represent; not just to appoint each other with a bunch of fancy titles. I recall no such note being polled in the Glenview area.

The last time a bunch of dogooders got together we were voted into the park district. Because of this we are paying higher Real Estate Taxes. We need to be in the park district just about as bad as we need another Civic Improvement Association.

SAYS DISAGREEMENT IS DUE TO MISUNDERSTANDING

Since most disagreements are based upon misunderstandings, I feel I must comment.

We commend the American Protestant who said his child in public school is objecting to the basis of disagreement! When giving aid to those in public schools, base that aid only upon the public school attendance and not on the combined attendance at private and public schools!

Before commenting on a topic one should acquaint oneself with facts, lest they show their true knowledge. Earliest American history indicates religious education was given to children. Even Harvard University, at its foundation, was given to children. They can't even keep them from playing in the streets now. Every home in Glenview has a back yard large enough to support the recreation facilities of any family. Try driving down Saratoga, National, or Terminal between 4 and 7 seven in the evening. It's almost impossible to do. Do you know why? Because the streets are full of children at play, and some of these children belong to our Glenview dogooders association. If children can't be controlled at home, how can they be controlled on a playground.

As far as being informed on the affairs of Civil government, I can find out all I want to need to know by reading the Press-Record and talking to my neighbor.

The total benefits paid to these people for December 1960 was $1,155,660, according to Ralph Brasher, manager of the East St. Louis Social Security District Office.

"This is an increase in the number of people receiving benefits by about 8% over the same month last year," he said.

Nationally, almost 15 million people were receiving about a billion dollars an month in old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits at the close of 1960. Many of these people were made eligible for benefits by the changes in the law made in 1960.

For the entire state, old-age, survivors and disability insurance payments at the end of December 1960 were paid to 844,571 persons at the rate of $57,480.23 per month. Benefits totaling $692,159,000 were paid in Illinois during 1960.

Mr. C. E. Townsend

Granite City, Illinois

Dear Mr. Townsend:

May I once again express the sincere thanks and deep appreciation of the Madison County Easter Seal Society for the excellent coverage which you gave us in the Press-Record during our recent campaign. We attribute a good part of the success of this year's campaign to the outstanding public service of the newspapers in the county.

Mrs. Ernest Veith informed the Society at the April Board Meeting of your generous contribution of $50. This money will be set aside to be used toward the purchase of addressograph plates for the Granite City area. The purchase of these plates would do much to facilitate an accurate and more efficient mail campaign for this area in the future. We are extremely grateful for your generosity.

The Quad-Cities topped their 1960 Campaign total by almost $1,000, bringing in a total of $3,017 in 1961. The total proceeds to date for the county are $14,614. Not only does the Board of Directors and treatment staff wish to express their thanks, but the many crippled children and adults in our county as well as those who benefit directly from these proceeds.

Very sincerely yours,
Carol Roach

State Capital NEWS

There will be no admission fees at Illinois state parks after July 1 under the provisions of a bill signed into law last week by Gov. Otto Kerner. Bill sponsor Sen. Gordon Kerr of Brookport said state parks should be free to attract tourists. Admission fees are now 10 cents a person, 10 cents a car and $2 for car sticker good for all year for car and occupants.

One of the insects giving Illinois farmers the greatest trouble this year is the face fly, a pest of cattle. Comparatively new to Illinois, this fly cannot be controlled by methods effective against other flies. A syrup bait applied to heads of animals gives the most effective control yet developed. Other controls are being developed and tested by the Illinois Natural History Survey, Urbana.

Diseases of corn are estimated to have cost Illinois farmers more than 200 million dollars in 1960, diseases of wheat more than 17 million dollars.

Soft water saves money in actual cost of detergents used in the home, according to William C. Ackermann, chief of the Illinois State Water Survey.

A study of nearly 400 families in Kankakee, Champaign-Urbana and Peoria showed a savings of $1.15 per person a year for each 100 parts per million reduction water hardness. This saving for normal domestic water consumption, according to Ackermann's study, is greater than the appropriate costs allocated to water softening by water utilities.

Deadline for the nomination of young Illinois residents for Young American Medals for Bravery and Service is June 1. Gov. Otto Kerner said last week Illinois boys and girls who have performed acts of extraordinary courage or have achieved an outstanding record of endeavor, service or recognition of character are eligible to be nominated for the awards, the governor said.

Acts of bravery or service must have taken place during 1960 for the person to be eligible for nomination. Two medals may be awarded in each category and the medals will be presented by President John F. Kennedy at the White House.

Nominations of Illinois youth should be sent to Joseph E. Ragen, director of the Illinois Department of Public Safety, State Army, Springfield.

Arnold H. Marmon, chairman of Gov. Otto Kerner's Conference on Tourism and Recreation, will welcome letters in answer to the following questions:

What parks, historic or scenic spots, recreational or educational facilities in Illinois have you visited lately?

Were eating and overnight facilities satisfactory?

When do you plan another visit to any of the state's points of interest?

Letters should be sent to the conference in care of the Superintendent, Division of Industrial Planning and Development, State of Illinois, State of Illinois Building, 160 N. LaSalle st., Chicago.

Asparagus growers intend to harvest 5300 acres for both fresh market and processing this year, according to a report from the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service. This is 100 acres more than last year and over 700 acres above the 1950-59 average.

Expected yield per acre at 1700 pounds is 160 pounds above the 1960 yield but 200 pounds below average. Total production is estimated at 15,800,000 pounds, seven per cent above a year ago, but one percent below average.

Harvest began in late April in southern areas. The "Grand Old Dame" of Pairs—the Illinois State Fair—will greet her guests this year in a fresh, crisp and refreshingly bright and gay look in keeping with the other changes of the exposition.

Children and youth exhibitors under 18 years of age are not required to pay a registration fee this year, but Rust said that by purchasing a registration ticket they can save the extra admission required for either themselves or a vehicle.

St. Louis Man Exonerated In Smith Slaying

Thomas Henry Lee, 27, St. Louis, charged with murder in the May 14 slaying of Venice tavern operator William "Bad Eye Bill" Smith, was exonerated last week by the Madison county grand jury.

The case was dismissed on grounds that a plea of self defense would be difficult to disprove. Lee was one of three men in which "no true bills" were handed down by the May term grand jury.

Lee and Smith were involved in an exchange of gunfire outside Smith's tavern, 715 Main street and Smith died a few hours later at St. Elizabeth's Hospital of wounds in the chest.

Lee was struck in the right groin by a bullet and was admitted to St. Louis City Hospital after undergoing surgery. Following the shooting, Venice city councilmen cracked down on Main street taverns, setting back closing hours from 4 a.m. to 1 a.m. on all drinking establishments.

Other not-rue bills were returned in the cases of Noel Reed and Hugh Jordan, who had been charged with attempt to commit burglary in the April 5 break-in at Carpenter's Hall, 23rd street and Washington avenue.

Kenneth Burdick, who was charged with burglary and larceny in the Feb. 22 break-in at Branding's Market, 2301 Delmar, also was exonerated.

Summer Dental Health Explained To Pupils

"Chewing cracked ice and biting into ice cream cones only results in later trips to the dentist," Dr. Francis McAllister, instructor in oral diagnosis at the St. Louis University School of Dentistry, warned students at the Nannook elementary school Friday.

Dr. McAllister, chairman of the Committee on College Relations at the School of Dentistry, addressed 600 students, presented slides showing tooth fractures and described proper toothbrush techniques.

He was assisted by nine senior students of the university, some of whom visited each classroom to demonstrate care of the teeth. Motion pictures were shown at two locations in the cafeteria and one in the kindergarten.

Pupils appeared on live but closed-circuit television, being viewed by a camera as they sat in the demonstration in the school gymnasium. Other students watched on three monitor sets located on the other side of the gym.

Tips To Avoid Chipping
In giving tips on preventive dentistry during the summer months, Dr. McAllister explained that children's teeth are often chipped when they crunch on ice in warm weather.

"If you must eat ice to keep cool, just let it melt in your mouth," he said.

"Continual biting down into ice cream cones is another hazard," he said.

and. Often there is damage to the tooth's nerve. Lick your ice cream cones and popcicles to prevent the need for later treatment," he told the students.

"Any fillings in the teeth contract and expand when biting into frozen confections. Eventually this habit can cause permanent nerve damage and cause the nerves of the teeth to die," he said.

"Practical jokes aren't funny. Remember this before you playfully push a friend's face into a drinking fountain or grab a soda bottle out of someone else's mouth. It is surprising the number of children your age who have had their front teeth damaged this way."

Summer Pointers
Dr. McAllister's other pointers for the summer months to dental health were:

1. Don't chew on grass or plants that might lead to mouth infections.

2. Avoid playing blindfold games in unfamiliar areas.

3. Don't stand too close to swings in motion on play grounds.

4. A glass of lemonade is healthy and refreshing, but sucking on quantities of lemons to quench thirst creates gum cavities.

5. Avoid running along slippery swimming pools and diving into the shallow end of the pool.

6. Eat sensibly and remember that excessive sweets create cavities.

In conclusion, Dr. McAllister said the majority of accidents which fracture teeth occur during the summer months, when children congregate on play grounds.

"When warming up for a football game, be careful with your ball so it doesn't hit a fellow player in the mouth."

Football is a wonderful sport but be cautious when playing in field positions to prevent getting teeth fractured. Be sure your catcher wears a mask," he warned.

City Drainage Report Presented;

Committee Turns Attention To Financing

Mayor Leonard Davis and members of the Granite City Council officially received Thursday night what was unquestionably the most important set of documents ever turned over to a mayor or aldermen in this city's 65-year history.

These were the comprehensive sewage and drainage reports compiled by Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab, together with their conclusions and recommendations. The voluminous study, complete with detailed engineering notes, maps and other data, not only charts the course which Granite City must pursue if it is to serve the present, as well as the future, population, but it also provides the city with its first — and only — record of existing sewers. The report is so detailed that even the location and physical condition of manholes are noted.

Requiring a year to complete, the study was made possible by a $120,000 federal grant obtained for the city by the 25-man Citizens Sewer and Drainage Committee, appointed by the mayor in January 1959. An engineer for the Illinois Sanitary Department commented Thursday night: "In this report, you have something many, many cities would give their eyes for."

While the first hurdle is cleared, an even bigger job lies ahead — that of translating the report into actual construction by arranging for the $13 to $14 million in financing that will be required. The citizens' committee, headed by C. W. Hoelcher, already has begun work on this complex phase.

They must succeed.

Public Has Right To Know Board

Members' Comments On School Issues

The Granite City school district spends far more tax money than any other governing body in the Quad-Cities. Because of the financial effect of contract changes, it was wise to adhere to a two-year teachers pact that was agreeable to both parties a year ago. Though there was some wavering, the school board is to be complimented for its decision; but one of the board actions preceding it should not be repeated.

We are referring to the closed session of the board. There are rare instances where, in the interest of the school system, some transactions require executive discussions. These are very rare, because it is just as important for the public to know how decisions are reached as it is for the people to know what the decisions are.

Last week's private session obviously was ordered to enable at least one or two board members to air views and questions on the teachers' contract without the teachers or the general public knowing what was said. In such cases, the president and board members who allow it to happen are placing personal considerations above the "people's right to know." In the words of the nation's first spaceman, full public information may seem a nuisance but it is one of the strengths of a free society.

Polio Remains Hazard Because Many Are Not Immunized

Because the live virus vaccine will not be available this year, Illinois residents are being urged to obtain the protection of the Salk polio vaccine. Dr. L. L. Fathens, state public health director, says there are still enough people not immunized or not completely immunized to permit severe polio epidemics in 1961.

Disease preventives are only as effective in safeguarding individuals and communities as their acceptance by the public. Until new methods become generally available, the vaccine that is recommended should be utilized to the fullest.

It's peculiar, but very soon the same weather that is too hot for going to church is not too hot for a game of golf or a fishing trip.

Illinois Area Must Begin To Speak And Act For Itself

Rapidly nearing a third of the population of the St. Louis region, the Illinois Metropolitan Area is often taken for granted, with St. Louis and St. Louis county authorities making weighty pronouncements and decisions about what is best for both them and us. To end this partial vacuum and gain better control of its destiny, the Illinois side must begin speaking for itself.

This view is not based on jealousy or ambition; it is a fact, though long unrecognized, that the Madison-St. Clair counties area already contributes substantially to the region's total manufacturing production and that within a few years it will account for over a third of a 3,000,000 St. Louis area population. This area must not be a step-child, but a full partner.

With this in mind, heads of six Chambers of Commerce and newspapers have met and will meet again on forming an organization to coordinate ideas and efforts, and to serve as a spokesman for this area on issues where a united stand is essential. The exact form of the group is undetermined, but there is general agreement that it is a "must."

Path To Streamlined, Effective

City Government Outlined By SIU

Southern Illinois University's report on Granite City's municipal government is lengthy and will need to be thoroughly digested. But the recommendations publicized so far indicate that study of the report by city officials will be well worth their time. More of the proposals will be outlined in detail in succeeding issues of the Press-Record.

Perhaps some of the proposed changes may not be desirable. Still, there is little doubt that some of the proposals are sound and detached, especially those which would result in a more efficient city government. The report, made at the city's request at a cost of $6,000, reflects intensive thought and effort on the part of staff members of the Southwestern campus' Metropolitan Affairs Program. Their performance would seem to afford him greater opportunity for effective direction of planning and action for city development. Performance must be the goal at all levels of the city structure, not "buck passing" and alibis.

Fewer Students Choosing To Become Doctors, Clergymen

The shortage of students entering newspaper work has been discussed here in the past. Now it appears that overemphasis on other fields also is causing shortages in two of the oldest of professions—medicine and the clergy.

The medical field, still one of the most lucrative of all, cites a "dwindling number and lower quality of students" applying in 1947, nearly 7% of all college graduates sought admission to medical schools, compared to a current 4% level. A few years ago, a majority of the applicants had A or high B averages as undergraduates; today, a sixth have A or C averages and all the remainder have B averages. Many small communities have no physicians at all.

Protestant, Catholic and Jewish leaders all report decreasing success in attracting youths to religious vocations in sufficient numbers. Hardest hit are Protestant denominations, which saw a 5% drop in seminary enrollment in the last year.

More and more, the challenge to parents, school counselors, church leaders and professional and occupational groups becomes apparent. The choice of vocations—usually followed throughout one's lifetime—has a far-reaching effect on the individual, his community and nation.

phasis is given when new firemen are added.

Fire hydrants have been added frequently and are tested regularly. In addition, a study is being made of the entire water system, enabling "dead end" lines to be avoided. The new fire station has afforded more room and equipment of various types has been added in recent years. Pre-firefighting efforts, including inspection of potentially hazardous building conditions, has been accelerated by the department.

Introduced In October
A fire prevention code of the type introduced in the city council last October is regarded as essential to maintaining a Class Six rating and seeking Class Five. Action has not yet been taken.

In 1952 report on Granite City, the fire underwriters' board urged adoption of a comprehensive code conforming to modern requirements for fire protection and prevention in building construction, and that its provisions be rigidly enforced.

Other recommendations included a new pump, since included; a fire alarm system; and requirement of automatic sprinkler systems. Also needed is a more effective "deluge gun."

The change in classification from Class Six to Class Five, which would mean a saving of $100 of insured property.

For Frame Savings
For frame dwellings, the rate on the building will drop from 18 to 16 cents and on contents from 22 to 20 cents. For brick homes, the rate will fall from 14 to 12 cents on the dwelling and from 18 to 16 cents on the furnishings.

The savings in a year's time will be $1 on a home and contents insured at a total of $5000, or $3 on a residence valued at $15,000.

Commercial property is rated on an individual basis. Business buildings here will be inspected and revalued in the near future.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Ivor (Frances) Crowley, Venice, Mrs. Robert (Dorothy) Bergrath, Madison, Mrs. Robert (Celeste) Kennedy and Mrs. Clem (Arnest) Waller, both of Granite City, Mrs. Aloys (Mae) Waller, Fayetteville, Ill., and Mrs. Raimund (Ethel) Groff, Bunker Hill, Ill.; two sons, Frank A. Carville, Ill., and Joseph Nomm, Madison; 23 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

THE COMPLEX LAW OF CHECKS

Mary Evans drew a $66 check, payable to "Cash," and used it to pay for some groceries. When the bank returned the check with the monthly bank statement, Mary was shocked to find that someone had raised the amount to $60. She told her husband John, and he immediately notified the bank of the alteration.

A quick investigation established that the bank had cashed the check, and had paid $60, so that the alteration was made before the check was presented for payment by the unknown defrauder.

Several days later, John discovered that another of the checks returned with the bank statement was a complete forgery. It was apparent that an impostor had drawn a check for $100 on John's bank, and had signed John's name to it. John called the bank again to tell them of the second fraud, and again he was told that the bank had paid the full amount of the check.

Bank Takes The Loss

Do you know that state of accounts between the Evans and their bank? Many people are surprised to learn that under Illinois law the bank cannot charge the Evans for money it paid by reason of the fraud.

As to the $100 forgery, the law required the bank to know the signature of its own depositors, and that duty prevails as against the most clever forgers. Since John was a depositor, the bank wrongfully paid the check.

As to Mary's $66 check, which was raised to $60, Illinois law provides that the bank must pay checks drawn on it according to the original "tenor" of the instrument. The amount for which the check was originally drawn.

Therefore, unless it can be shown that Mary's negligence led to the alteration, the bank must stand the loss. The bank is authorized to charge the Evans account only with the $66 for which the check was originally drawn.

Under Illinois law, the Evans could not recover from the bank if more than one year elapsed...

Summer School To Open June 13 In GC District

Summer classes will begin Tuesday, June 13, in the Granite City school district, Supl. Harold M. Kaiser has announced.

The program will be similar to that of last year, and fees will remain the same. As required by state law, it is self-supporting, with the tuition used to pay teachers' salary.

The seven-week high school program is planned for June 13 to July 28, with instruction given between 8 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Students may take one or two subjects, with each consisting of 90 minutes of classroom work and 90 minutes of study.

Registration June 13

Tuition at GCIS will be $12.50 for each subject. Subject offerings will be based upon need and registration will take place at 9 a.m. Monday, June 12.

Driver training will be offered free to high school students.

At the elementary level, registration will be conducted at Niedringhaus, Webster and Prohardt schools. Classes will run from 9 a.m. to noon, continuing from June 13 to July 21, a six-week period.

Tuition will be $25 for each grade school pupil, or $15 for those in speech correction classes.

Registration for summer band classes will be held June 13 through the various instrumental music instructors. Tuition will be $6 for an eight-week high school band program or $5 for six-week junior high and grade school band and string instrument programs.

Girl, 2, Drinks Kerosene; Boy, 5, Cuts Tongue

Mary Smith, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Kaiser, 4025 Maryville Road, drank an unknown amount of kerosene and was given a stomach lavage at 3 p.m. Thursday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She was released after treatment.

In other Thursday emergency cases, Charles Shelton, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Shelton, 1912 Fifth street, Madison, jumped from a picnic table and bit his tongue. He received seven stitches at 5:35 p.m.

Nancy Arthur, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Arthur, Box 141, Mitchell, sustained a cut to her left knee when she fell at home. Seven stitches were taken at 8:30 p.m.

Donald Schamot, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schamot, Mitchell, fell, sustaining a cut on his chin. The wound required four stitches at 8:50 p.m.

"Okay! Electric heat would be wonderful ...but can we afford it?"

Electric heat is wonderful. It is also more expensive than any common home heating method. But if you need extra heat in the bathroom... if you have a room your present furnace can't bring up to proper temperature... if you're adding a room and your present heating system is already taxed to capacity, electric heat may be just the answer. And you may discover the extra cost is less than you think—and well worth it for this luxury type of heat. Ask your architect or electric contractor. Or call the Illinois Power heating representative for a free estimate of electric heating costs.

MISS JOYCE ANN SVEZIA, fiancée of Robert Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Price, 2674 Iowa street, Granite City. The betrothal of the couple is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Svezia, 170 Fifth street, Madison. Miss Svezia graduated Friday from the Madison high school. The prospective bridegroom is a sophomore at the University of Missouri.

Tall standards of white gladiolus, together with emerald arrangements, decorated Sacred Heart Catholic Church Saturday morning for the 11 o'clock wedding of Miss Delores Koresog and John E. Curing of Arlington Heights. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Msgr. Michael Costello.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Koresog, 2331 East 57th street. Miss Curing's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Curing.

Thomas Livingston of Chicago was best man, and Edward J. of Champaign, Thomas M. of Arlington Heights, and Edward J. of Arlington Heights, bridegroom's brother, and John E. Koresog, a brother of the bride, were groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore costume of rose beige and blue with beige accessories and white orchid corsage, while the bride wore a pink sheath dress with accessories of white and white orchid pinned at the shoulder.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Koresog was largely in a gown of illusion tulle, with a long, flowing train, trimmed with reemboiré lace. The bodice, inlaid with set long tapering sleeves which were fitted to the shoulders, had a line and a skirt, terminating in a cathedral-length train. A bouquet of white lilies, pink pansies, pearls and the bridal bouquet, centered with a detachable orchid corsage, was made up of white orchids and stephanotis.

Dressed alike, a maid of honor, Miss Diane Nemeth, and three bridesmaids, Misses Judith and Mary Ann Nemeth, and Miss Rose Eck, the latter of Farmington, Mo., preceded the bride and her father to the altar. The bridesmaids carried white organza with red rolled roses down the back. The brides had boat necklines and cap sleeves. All wore white shoes with red heels. The brides carried red roses on white fans.

A little flower girl, Lynn Ann Johnson, was dressed like the older attendants. The flower girl carried a basket of high school and attended University of Illinois. She was employed by a firm in St. Louis. Mr. Eck also attended the University of Illinois.

Among the out-of-town guests were the wedding party, the bride's maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Anna Kovacs of Maryville, the bride's great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ann Kovacs of Chicago, and his uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Ric.
